

Call for Contribution and Participation

Young experts for “Fair Culture”

Exchange of international experts on “Fair Culture” at UNESCO World Conference Mondiacult in September 2022 in Mexico City and beyond

The German Commission for UNESCO and its cooperation partners are gathering a dynamic and truly global group of experts for “Fair Culture” at the UNESCO World Conference Mondiacult in September 2022 in Mexico City.

Goal is to include excellent professionals, future decision makers and communicators from all world regions in the elaboration and sharpening of a concept of “Fair Culture” during a side event at Mondiacult 2022 and in the next years.

The German Commission for UNESCO and its cooperation partners are seeking up to 12 young specialists from Africa, Asia, EU, Latin America, Northern America and the Arabic Region with proven competence and interest in the areas of cultural, trade and/or development policies and relevant aspects of the UNESCO Convention on the Diversity of Cultural Expressions.

Interested candidates are invited to apply by submitting a short paper (max. 800 words) and a CV. Papers should consider the following questions:

- What does “Fair Culture” mean to me?
- What are main challenges and recent achievements for a fair and sustainable production, distribution, cooperation and trade in the culture and creative sector in my country, my region as well as globally?
- Who are important stakeholders and allies in your country and region to support an initiative on “Fair Culture”?
- Did my country of origin (and/or current place of living) ratify the UNESCO Convention on the Protection and the Promotion for the Diversity of Cultural Expressions? If so, did the Government name a national focal point and/or did they hand in a periodic monitoring report (QPR)?

Participants are expected to take actively part in the hybrid event in Mexico City on 26 or 27 September 2022 and shape and develop an international cooperation on “Fair Culture” in the next years as well as to disseminate the ideas and aims of “Fair Culture”, and the UNESCO Convention on the Diversity of Cultural Expressions throughout their networks.

See further details on the initiative “Fair Culture”: www.unesco.de/en/culture-and-nature/cultural-diversity/cultural-diversity-worldwide/fair-trade-fair-culture).

The Cooperation partners are: International Federation of Coalitions for Cultural Diversity (IFCCD), UNESCO Chair on the Diversity of Cultural Expressions at University Laval Canada, Goethe Institute Mexico as well as the National Commissions for UNESCO of Colombia (Ministry of Culture), France, Kenya and South Korea.

Working language: English

Submission by latest 28th July 2022 to the German Commission for UNESCO (Contact Point of the 2005 Convention), 2005Konvention@unesco.de, reference “Young Experts for Fair Culture”.